April 9, 1981

CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Max:

I enjoyed our lunch on April 4th.

As we discussed, the Department will move ahead with the Gateway system development. I have asked Stu Branch to have his staff work with [redacted] in evaluating the functional requirement for the Network Terminal System's (NTS) subsystem of Project Mercury. I propose we have them report their findings to the Joint Policy Board as soon as they complete their review.

STAT

In the meantime, we would welcome participation by your staff in our development of the Gateway system should you so desire.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. Tracy

Mr. Max Hugel,
Deputy Director for Administration,
Central Intelligence Agency.
